FIRST CLAIM FRAUD UPON THE COURT

10. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1 through 7, verbatim, of this Complaint as if they were recited again herein at this paragraph as reference.
11. Defendant initiated a Order to Docket in Prince George's county claiming to represent Plaintiff's creditor.
12. Defendant knew at the time of the filing that Defendant did not represent Plaintiff's creditor.
13. Plaintiff has disputed this debt on several occasions.
14. Defendant used the United States Postal Service to mail Plaintiff copies of her Deed of Trust (which names someone other than Defendant) and a copy of what appears to be Defendant's note.

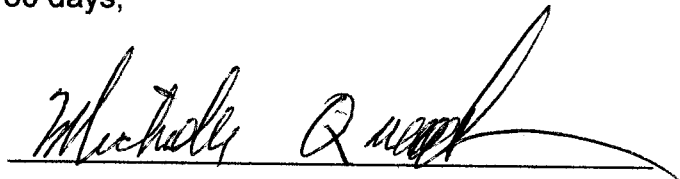

15. The note is not date stamped nor is it endorsed to Defendant's client who Defendant claims to be US Bank National Associations, As Trustee For Citigroup Mortgage Loan Trust Inc. Mortgage Pass-Through certificates, Series 2006-WF2.
16. Defendant filed or caused to be filed in Prince George's County land records a document entitled corporate assignment of Deed of Trust.
17. Defendant is a debt collected registered with the state of Maryland.
18. Defendant is schooled in law.
19. Defendant should know the difference between a creditor and a purchaser of bad debt.
20. Defendant claims it represents a person who has no rights to enforce my note.
21. Defendant claims it represents a person who purchased my note with notice of default.
22. The note is not date stamped so this court must look to the assignment to determine possession date.
23. The assignment state 6/7/12 as their possession date
24. Defendant alleged client claims a default date of March 3, 2009.
25. Given these facts Defendant cannot claim that it did not know it was not representing Plaintiff's creditor.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

26. Wherefore, Plaintiff respectfully request that, should Defendant fail to produce proof of claim on all points, that this court enter a judgment for the following remedies:

1. Declare that Defendant is not Plaintiff's creditor;

2. Release all claims by Defendant against Plaintiff;
3. Declare that Defendant cannot enforce any claim, Note, or debt against Plaintiff;
4. Instruct Defendant to rescind any and all negative and or derogatory reports made to any credit bureau regarding the account;
5. Declare the alleged debt to be nonexistent, invalid, or unenforceable with finality, so as to establish res judicata and estoppels;
6. Instruct Defendant to return all monies collected from Plaintiff ;
7. Instruct Defendant to conduct a full reconveyance of all properties with clear title to Plaintiff within 30 days;
